

Exhibit Your Collections Online

Omeka is a free, open-source system for museums and cultural institutions to manage and publish items, collections, and exhibits on the web. Easy to install and modify, Omeka facilitates community-building around collections and exhibits.

System Features in Development

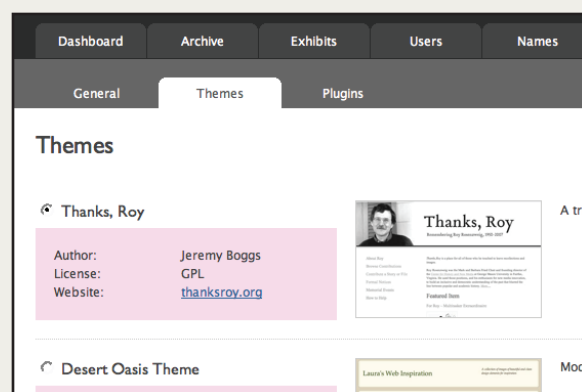

Plugins

- Tagging: Allow users to add keywords to items in a collection or exhibit
- Blogging: Keep in touch with users through timely postings about collections and events
- Syndicating: Update your users about your content with RSS feeds
