The collapse of the Berlin Wall was one of the most dramatic events of 1989, events that brought the era of Communist rule in Eastern Europe to a close. Making the History of 1989 explores the many forces at play, both internal and external.

This new, free website also includes:

- A detailed introductory essay
- Strategies for teaching 1989
- Lesson plans and DBQs
- More than 300 primary sources: documents, images, videos, and objects
