

Foundations of U.S. History

Virginia History as American History

Loudoun County Public Schools

Teaching American History Grant

A Partnership of Loudoun County Public Schools and George Mason University's Center for History and New Media and Department of History and Art History.

Teacher Application – Round 1

Due December 1, 2006

Please check desired Option: Option A _____ Option B _____ Option C _____

Name: _____

School name: _____

Current teaching assignment (Grade level, subject area): _____

Years teaching American history: ____ Years teaching Virginia history: ____

Years teaching in Loudoun County Public Schools: _____

Educational background (degrees, college courses, special training): _____

Educational background in American history: _____

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Home phone: _____ School phone: _____

Home E-mail: _____ School E-Mail: _____

Home Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

LCPS PID# _____ (Please contact Payroll if unsure of PID # or look on your paycheck stub)

Please respond to the following:

1. As a result of your participation in the grant, what do you hope to accomplish?
2. Name two specific topics in Virginia or U.S. history that you would like to learn more about.
3. What new media and history teaching strategies are you interested in learning more about?

I have read and understand the requirements for the Teaching American History (TAH) grant, and agree to fulfill the requirements associated with the option I have chosen. This includes attending Summer Institute sessions, completing online reflections, writing case studies about primary source activities, and participating in evaluation data gathering.

I affirm that I am a certified teacher in Loudoun County Public Schools, and that my instructional responsibilities include the teaching of Social Science. I further affirm that I will maintain a teaching schedule in the area of U.S. and/or Virginia History during the school year after which I complete this Virginia History as American History Program:

Signature: _____ Date: _____

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL:

I support the participation of _____ in Foundations of U.S. History, a Teaching American History grant program. As building principal for the above teacher, I affirm that he/she will maintain a schedule which will include instruction in the area of U.S. and/or Virginia History in the year after which he/she completes this program.

Signature: _____ Title: _____

Please complete and mail this application by December 1, to Sarah Whelan, Project Coordinator, Foundations of U.S. History. Social Sciences, Department of Instruction. 21000 Education Court, Ashburn, Virginia 20148.

For more information, contact Sarah Whelan at swhelan@loudoun.k12.va.us or (571) 252-1397.